

Faculty of Economics and Political Science

International Public Law

Information :

Course Code : LAW 201

Level : Undergraduate

Course Hours : 3.00- Hours

Department : Department of Public Administration

Instructor Information :

Title	Name	Office hours
Lecturer	Nilly Kamal Mohamed Hussnin Elamir

Area Of Study :

In a rapid developing society, either within the national or the international sense, a student within the faculty of Economics and Political science, shall be aware of the basic principles governing International law and International relations, which is basically what this course aims to achieve. It deals with, inter alia, the definition of international law, the differentiation between public and private international law, the main sources of international law, the Vienna convention on the law of treaties, the definition and characteristics of a state, sovereignty and recognition of state, national borders, the succession of states, international responsibility, self-defense, intervention, preemptive wars, law of the sea, air law, space law and Antarctica. All of which, using different examples from international cases as developed by international courts, such as the International Criminal Court (ICC), International Court Of Justice (ICJ), International Criminal Tribunal for formal Yugoslavia (ICTY), European Court for Human Rights (ECHR), and developing case study skills with the students.

Course Goals:

- Develop an understanding of the key concepts in the field of international public law.
- Equip students with a legal framework through which they can view the state and its relations in political science.

Description :

In a rapid developing society, either within the national or the international sense, a student within the faculty of Economics and Political science, shall be aware of the basic principles governing International law and International relations, which is basically what this course aims to achieve. It deals with, inter alia, the definition of international law, the differentiation between public and private international law, the main sources of international law, the Vienna convention on the law of treaties, the definition and characteristics of a state, sovereignty and recognition of state, national borders, the succession of states, international responsibility, self-defense, intervention, preemptive wars, law of the sea, Air law, space law, and Antarctica. All of which, using different examples from international cases as developed by international courts, such as the International Criminal Court (ICC), International Court Of Justice (ICJ), International Criminal Tribunal for formal Yugoslavia (ICTY), European Court for Human Rights (ECHR), and developing case study skills with the students.

Course outcomes :

a. Knowledge and Understanding: :

1 -	Define social phenomena and their regulation from a legal perspective.
2 -	Recognize the interplay between legal rules and underlying social values.

b. Intellectual Skills: :

1 -	Develop skills in critical, logical and structured reasoning generally and within the context of public international law in particular.
2 -	Develop students' analytical and critical thinking skills.

c. Professional and Practical Skills: :

1 -	Interpret the strengths and weaknesses of law generally and public international law in particular as an instrument of social organization and control.
2 -	Apply the international law procedures for the pacific settlement of international disputes.

d. General and Transferable Skills: :

1 -	Appraise the communications skills of students so that they can present and argue in an academic manner.
2 -	Interpret more advanced concepts and cases in the field of law

Course Topic And Contents :

Topic	No. of hours	Lecture	Tutorial / Practical
Introduction	3	1
The Nature of International Law	3	1
Sources of International Law	3	1
Treaties	3	1
International Law and Municipal Law/Public and Private International Law	6	2
States, Recognition and International Law	3	1
Midterm Exam		1
International Organizations and Regimes	3	1
Individuals and International Law	3	1
International Conflict	3	1
Succession of States, International Responsibility, Self-defense, Intervention, Preemptive Wars, Law of the Sea, Air Law, Space Law and Antarctica	6	2
The International Courts	3	1
Final Exam		1

Teaching And Learning Methodologies :

Data show and computer in lectures

Group discussion

Research Paper

Course Assessment :

Methods of assessment	Relative weight %	Week No	Assess What
Attendance and Participation	15.00		To assess understanding
Final Exam	40.00	15	To assess knowledge and intellectual skills.
Midterm Exam(s)	30.00	8	To assess professional skills.

Research Paper

15.00

Course Notes :

Handouts